INSTITUTION INNOVATION COUNCIL

The Institution Innovation Council and Startup Club of Cauvery College for Women (Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli-620018 organized a session on "Awareness on Startup and Entrepreneurship" on 16.08.2023. The session was organised with the motive to guide students on their entrepreneurial journey and provide an insight into the processes and funding for the start-ups. The Session provided valuable inputs to the participants, especially to the students which would help them in developing something innovative & understanding the need of customers and towards the journey of entrepreneurship. About 64 students were benefitted by their active participation.

Dr.V.Sujatha, IIC President, Cauvery College for women welcomed the gathering by imparting the benefits of Startups in the field of science using proper characterization. Dr.R.Subha, Assistant Professor, Department of chemistry addressed the overview of five days programme on CV, spin and dip coating unit. Dr.C.Raja Rajeswari, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry delivered the introduction, principles of CV with several applications. Dr.K.Umasivagami, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry explored the instrumentation, working and case studies of samples.

On day 2, Mr.Balasubramaniam, Technical officer, IPGG instruments, Chennai discussed the working procedures of electrode making, solvent preparation and dipping of the electrodes finally analyzing the sample. The samples were runned in the CV equipment for qualitative analysis of metals. On day 3, Dr.Noornisha delivered the principles and applications of spin coating using thin film technology. The samples for coating has been prepared by an individual participant. Dr.Mekala, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics trained the participants to run the samples in dip coating unit. The students had an opportunity to visualize their own samples for the study. 100 students of our Institution participated in person session for gaining knowledge in building innovative ecosystem.
