CAUVERY COLLEGE ADMISSION POLICY

Cauvery College for Women (Autonomous), Trichy established by the Reddy Educational Trust in 1984, strictly adheres to the reservation policy set forth by the State Government of Tamil Nadu, in relation to the admission of students to the programs offered.

The institution has adopted an inclusive admission policy for promoting equal learning opportunities to students, irrespective of their economic, social, or regional backgrounds.

As per Tamil Nadu Government norms, all self-financing colleges are required to reserve 50% of their sanctioned strength under the Management quota and 50% under the Government quota for various categories. Accordingly, seats are reserved for admission.

Management does not charge any tuition fees to students belonging to the SC/ST category. Students from the SC/ST category are encouraged to apply for scholarships from the government. A Savings Bank account for students are also opened upon admission. Government scholarships are deposited directly into the student's account. Although the students receive government scholarships, they are not denied the Management Scholarship.
